November 26: Constitution Day

The Department of History, in collaboration with other departments, celebrated the 75th anniversary of the adoption of the Constitution. This day serves as a reminder to uphold the values and principles enshrined in our Constitution and to take responsibility for protecting and preserving the democratic framework entrusted to us.

Ms. Stephy Tresa Joseph delivered an insightful talk, raising extensive awareness among the students. Students also led an elaborate reading of the Preamble at the college.

February 10, 2025-Field Visit

Department of History conducted a field visit to State Archives and Museum as their part of syllabus (HY 1661.4-Introduction to Museology:Methods and Conservation Practices) on Monday (February 10, 2025). It was a wonderful experience to all the students. We reached the state ARCHIVES at 11.00 AM where they understood why they preserved the public documents, how they preserved, what are the preserving methods that they followed…after completed this visit, they had reached MUSEUM at 12.45 PM. It was a wonderful place where they foundout all which they had already studied. Kinds of materials, why they collected those materials, tangible and intangible, lighting setup,…they learned. After completing it they reached college at 3.00 PM.

Report on Reading Day Celebration – June 19

Reading Day was celebrated in our institution on June 19 with great enthusiasm and active participation from all students. The programme was organized to cultivate the habit of reading and to highlight the importance of books in enriching knowledge and imagination.

As part of the celebration, every student was encouraged to take a book, prepare a short review, and present it within three minutes. All the participants showcased their reviews with clarity and confidence, making the event engaging and inspiring.

To motivate the students further, prizes were awarded for the best presentations. The First Prize was awarded to one boy and one girl, each receiving a copy of The Alchemist. The Second Prize was awarded to another boy and girl, who were gifted the book Ikigai.

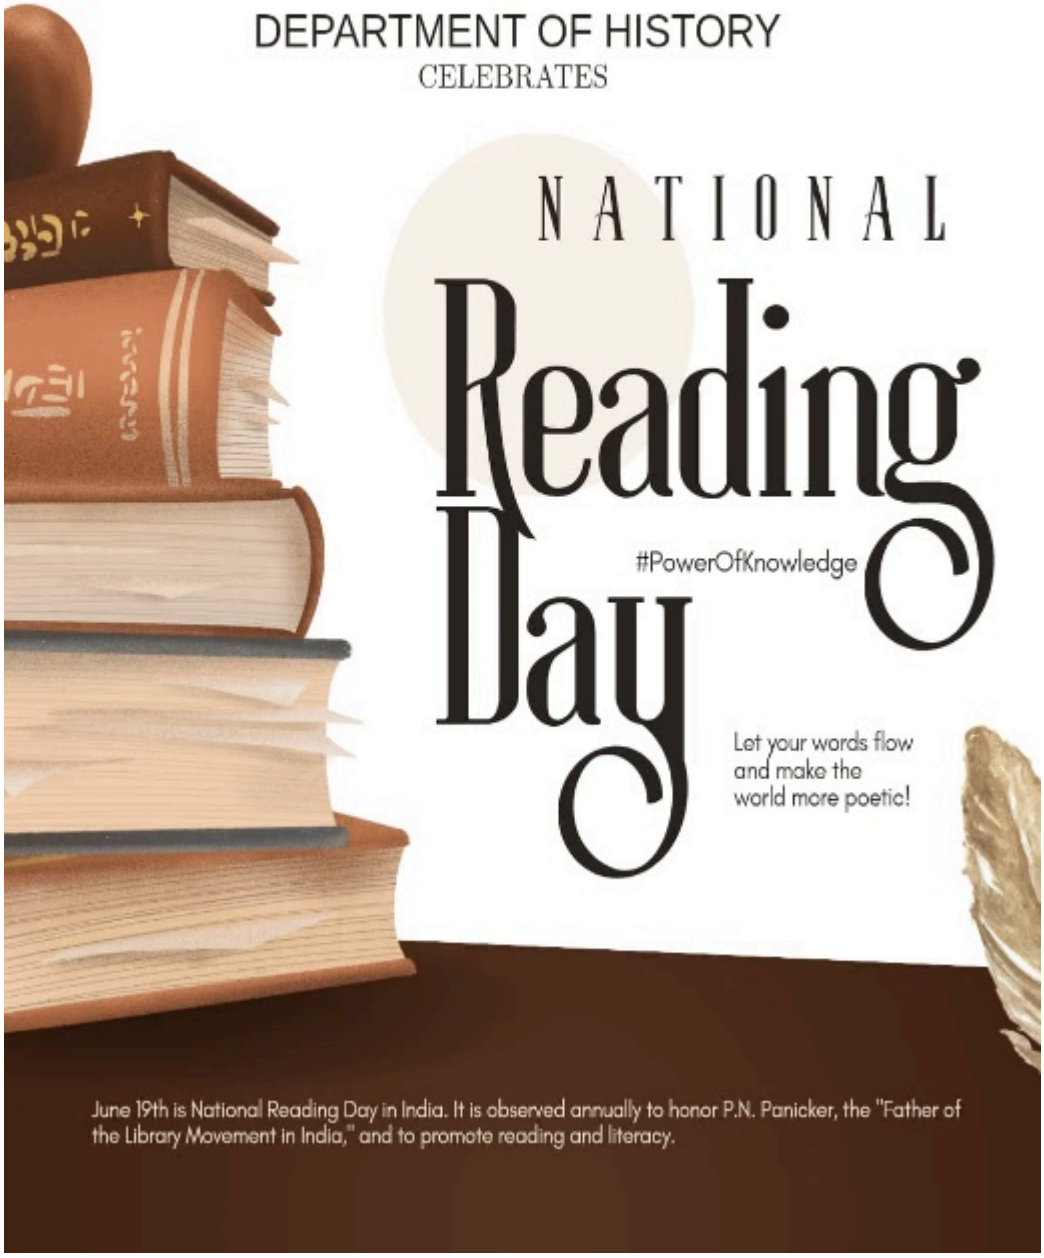

The event turned out to be highly successful, instilling the spirit of reading among students and reminding everyone of the joy and value of books.

Report on Field Visit to Anchuthengu Fort, Lighthouse and Attingal Palace on August 14, 2025.

A field visit was organized for the students on August 14, 2025, with a total of 70 students participating enthusiastically. The visit aimed at providing first-hand exposure to the rich history and heritage of our region. Snacks were also arranged for the students during the trip.

Our first stop was the Anchuthengu Fort and the Lighthouse. The fort gave us an enriching experience of history and historicity. The students could witness the architectural style, constructional techniques, and the significance of the fort in colonial history. The Lighthouse offered another memorable experience, with its structural design and technological aspects leaving the students fascinated.

Later, we proceeded to the Attingal Palace. Unfortunately, due to ongoing renovation works, we were unable to enter the premises. However, the students observed the palace from the outside and learned about its historical importance and cultural heritage.

The field visit turned out to be a fruitful and enjoyable experience. It not only deepened our understanding of history, architecture, and technology but also provided moments of recreation and bonding among students.
